Tuition rates are determined yearly based on a percentage of the actual cost to educate each student. Tuition and fees are subject to change each school year. Revenue for operating costs each year comes from the following sources:

1. Tuition and fees
2. School fundraising through the PTC
3. Subsidy from community efforts such as the fundraisers, the Catholic Schools Tuition Assistance Program run by the Diocese of St. Petersburg, Step-up for Student Scholarships, Mary C. Forbes Foundation, the Salesian Sisters Incorporated, donors and other private organizations.
